GREAT AUDIENCES.

There were large audiences yesterday at the morning and evening services of the special evangelistic meetings being held in the Second Presbyterian Church. Rev. E. T. Wellford, who is preaching, was at his best, and the choir supplemented by several outside singers, rendered beautiful and appropriate music.

At the morning service Mr. Wellford's theme was "The Inner Circle." He showed how Christ not only had followers, but favored ones who were nearer to Him than the great outer circle. The twelve apostles and the others named; among the twelve there were three favored ones who were with him at the great moment of His life and death; that even among these there was one disciple whom Jesus loved above others. The preacher urged all of his hearers to draw within the favored circle and come close to the Master. At the conclusion of this service the communion was celebrated. The choir rendered a pretty offertory, and Mrs. Leta Montague sang a solo.

In the afternoon there was a well attended meeting for men, at which time Dr. Wellford spoke on "What Thomas Mailed." Thomas was absent from the company of disciples when the Lord appeared, and he missed much of the blessing. He compared him to many Christians of today who absent themselves from the church services, and so miss much of privilege.

At the evening service the church was crowded. Mrs. Woods and Mrs. Savier sang a duet; the Westminster Quartette sang with great sweetness and expression and the choir rendered one of the simple gospel songs with depth of feeling. Dr. Wellford spoke on Temptations. Ulog the temptation of Christ as his theme he showed how each one was met. He offered the victorious Saviour to each tempted soul that wanted Him for his portion. When the invitation was given three persons responded. Then Mrs. Savier sang "Almost Persuaded." When an opportunity was given to all Christians who wanted to draw closer to the Saviour to stand, many rose.

This afternoon at 3:15 the talk will be directed especially to children. Tonight at 7:45 questions will be answered and at 8 o'clock the services proper will begin. The interest in these meetings seems to grow deeper with each service.

At the services at St. Mary's Church yesterday the annual church report was read by the pastor, Rev. H. J. Oulter. The report showed the church to be in a very satisfactory financial condition.

The reception of the Children of Mary at the church at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon was an interesting feature.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE TRAIN.

Commissioner of Agriculture and Immigration George W. Koerner has received from M. V. Richards, land and industrial agent of the Southern Railway a complete schedule of the Farmers' Institute train which will be operated by that road and the Baltimore and Ohio road, from Alexandria to Danville.

The train, equipped with an exhibit of farming implements, Virginia farm products, masses of literature, and carrying a party of distinguished agricultural lecturers, will leave Alexandria on the morning of May 16, after an institute has been held in this city. Burke station will be the next stop. After a meeting has been held there the train will proceed to Fairfax, where a big meeting is scheduled. At Manassas, the next stop, the train will remain all night.

On the following day institutes will be held at Nokesville, Remington and Culpeper. Rapidan, Orange, Barboursville and Charlottesville will be the places at which stops will be made on May 18.

Red Hill, Coveville, Arrington and Amherst will be the places where institutes are planned for May 19. On the following day institutes will be held at Arlington and Franklin junction, the entire day being devoted to the meeting there.

Union Hill, Chatham and Danville will be the last places along the line where the speakers will make addresses.

The lecturers on the train which will have sleeping and boarding accommodations for them, will be Commissioner Koerner, Prof. J. F. Gordon, of Ohio; Prof. S. B. Hodges, of Pennsylvania county; Prof. W. D. Zinn, of West Virginia and Mr. W. W. Sproul, of Augusta county.

STRIKE TALK.

Rumors of a strike at the Porter Brewery are again in the air. Inquiry at the office of the company brought the information that a new contract had been presented by the Brewery Workers' Union demanding increased wages and shorter hours, and that the company has acceded to the request for higher wages but was unable to grant shorter hours.

The offer of the company makes the wages $17 to $19 per week in the brewery and $12 to $15 in the bottling house, with an eight-hour day in winter and nine-hour day in summer. These wages and hours are the same as in Washington, one brewery there having a similar contract with four years more to run.

The Porter people state that they are unable to comply with the Washington conditions, where they do no business, and compete with Norfolk, Richmond, Roanoke and other southern breweries, who pay less wages and work longer hours. In Richmond they work ten hours in summer and nine hours in winter; Norfolk and Roanoke ten hours all the year round. In those cities the pay is from $13 to $15 in the breweries and $9 to $12 in the bottling houses. With higher wages and shorter hours in Alexandria, and lower wages and longer hours in the territory where the company has to compete, it is inconceivable that the employees would resort to a strike to enforce their demands with the prospect of their places being filled by many who would be glad to get them.

CITY DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.
 A meeting of the city democratic committee will be held tonight at the Opera House Cafe for the purpose of receiving the names of candidates and to fix a date for a primary election that is, if such an election is necessary. Should no rival candidates give their names to the committee, no primary will be held.

The following are among the gentlemen who have been named as possible candidates for the Common Council: Messrs. H. N. Gruner, 1st ward; J. Y. Williams, 2d; A. D. Brockett, 3d; and C. B. Swan, 4th.

So far as known the present aldermen whose terms expire on the 1st of September will be candidates to succeed themselves. Mr. Kenneth Ogden will be a candidate for aldermen in the 3d ward. Alderman Curtis, has, so far, failed to say positively whether he will be a candidate or not. He was not in the city today; hence no statement from him could be obtained.

Aspirants for the democratic nomination for the House of Representatives from the Eighth district of Virginia have until noon today to file notice of their candidacy with Raleigh T. Green, of Culpeper, chairman of the district committee. The committee will meet in this city tomorrow to arrange for a primary to be held August 9 if Representative Carlin should have opposition. From present indications Mr. Carlin will have a clear field. In this event the necessity of a primary, the cost of which would be about $1,500, would be obviated.

They were fined $50 each, and the others $5 each for disorderly conduct.

DISAPPEARED WITH SUIT.
 A stranger entered J. Burnheimer & Co.'s store, corner of King and Lee streets, last Saturday night and pretended he desired to purchase a suit of clothes. After picking out garments which seemed satisfactory to him, the man asked permission to take them under the lights near the front door in order, he said, that he might examine the clothing more closely. Almost in less time than it takes to tell it, the pretended purchaser rushed out of the front door with the suit and was soon lost to sight.

GOLDSBORO HEARD FROM
 A Lady Who Lives in Goldsboro Joins in the Chorus of Praise for Cardui, The Woman's Tonic.

Goldsboro, N. C.—"A physician treated me for many distressing symptoms," writes Mrs. Etta A. Smith, "but gave me no relief."

"I suffered with neuralgia around the heart and was troubled at times with my head. I had pain in my left side, bowels, left thigh, shoulders and arms."

"After taking Cardui, I am now well and can recommend it to other suffering women."

Just such doubtful symptoms, as those from which Mrs. Smith suffered, are the ones for which it will pay you to take Cardui, the woman's tonic.

It is at such times, when there is nothing to show, for certain, the real cause of the trouble, that you need a tonic, to give the body strength to throw off the illness that evidently threatens.

Take Cardui, when you are ill, with the ailments of youth. Take Cardui, a tonic to prevent illness, when you feel it coming.

Your druggist keeps it.
